

SOMETHING NEW.

A Democratic Candidate on a Prohibition Platform.

J. H. HOLT, OF MOUNDSVILLE.

Was Nominated by the "Prohibitors" Saturday and Endorsed by the Democrats—He Gives the Intelligence a Statement in which He Says He Stands on but One Platform, that of the Prohibition Party.

The Marshall county Prohibition convention met at the Moundsville camp grounds preceding the state convention, Saturday. The following ticket was nominated:

Sheriff—R. J. McFarland, of Franklin district.

Clerk of the Circuit Court—Walter M. Evans, of Washington district.

Clerk of the County Court—Oscar Wright, of Washington district.

Prosecuting Attorney—J. Howard Holt, of Washington district.

House of Delegates—Dr. D. J. States, of Washington district, and H. L. Crow, of Cameron district.

County Commissioner at Large—Thomas Scott, of Washington district.

Assessor—First district, S. T. Thatcher, of Webster; second district, Harrison Hicks, of Cameron district.

County Surveyor—W. P. Fish, of Meigs district.

During the convention Mr. Holt, who was nominated for prosecuting attorney, and who also has been endorsed by the Democrats for the same office, spoke as to his nomination by the party, declaring unqualifiedly for the Prohibition platform and saying he would be true to its principles, by whatever party endorsed.

In an interview with Mr. Holt the Intelligence reporter received the following from him, which he said as his attitude and which he would communicate to the Democratic executive committee when it officially notifies him of its endorsement of him. He said:

"I stand upon the Prohibition platform adopted at Pittsburgh, May 27, 1895, only, and if I can have your support while I stand there, I will be glad to have your endorsement; and you as well as any and all voters of whatever party, who will support my candidacy upon that platform are welcome to place my name upon your tickets."

NAMED A STATE TICKET.

Prohibition State Convention at Moundsville Saturday.

Saturday afternoon at the Moundsville camp grounds, in connection with the Ohio Valley Prohibition Assembly, the state convention of the Prohibition party of West Virginia, was held. There was only a slim attendance from the state at large and the interest taken in the proceedings was not great. Hon. Hale Johnson, of Illinois, candidate for vice president, was present, and made an address. The following nominations were made:

Governor—T. C. Johnson, of Kanawha.

Attorney-General—C. D. Merrick, of Wood.

Auditor—George Morrow, of Marion.

Treasurer—R. H. Rutherford, of Ritchie.

State Superintendent of Schools—Hugh Bowers, of Grant.

Judge of the Court of Appeals—J. D. Baines, of Kanawha.

For Presidential Electors—First District—P. W. Chambers, of Hancock; Second District—Albert Day, of Marion; Third District—C. Hughes, of Upshur; Fourth District—George Leonard, of Jackson. At Large—T. B. Carskadon, of Mineral, and J. W. Bedford, of Cabell.

THE WHEELING CONVENTION.

It is Practically Settled that it will be Held in the Wheeling Park Casino.

Though it has not yet been definitely settled, it is practically settled that the state Democratic nominating convention on August 12, will be held in the Wheeling park casino. Since the convention was slated for Wheeling there has been some discussion as to the proper place for the gathering. Some desired it to be held in the pavilion at Mozart park, and others thought machinery hall on the state fair grounds was the proper place. But the argument that was used before the state committee was that the city now has a place—the park casino—fully equal to the demands of a gathering of the calibre of a state convention, and there in where the convention will undoubtedly be held. The local committee has not yet completed the arrangements for the convention, but it is said an effort will be made to have delegates transported to the park free of charge.

GOING TO CLARKSBURG.

The Railroad Arrangements for the First District Republican Convention.

All delegates and others who propose to attend the Clarksburg Republican congressional convention by way of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, will be given a one and one-third rate for the round trip from all stations, exclusive of Wheeling and Moundsville. Parties going from Wheeling and Moundsville will be given the advantage of the reduced fare if as many as ten go in a party, otherwise they will pay full fare until they reach the first point beyond Moundsville, when they can procure the special rate tickets.

Quite a number of those who are going to Clarksburg will go over the Ohio River by way of Parkersburg, and returning will take in the state convention at the latter city on Wednesday. Those who take the Ohio River road route will leave here this afternoon at 4:35 and arrive in Parkersburg about 8 o'clock, where they will spend the night and proceed to Clarksburg Tuesday morning. The congressional convention will convene at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning and the proceedings will be over in time for the delegates to leave for Parkersburg the same afternoon.

GOING TO ST. LOUIS.

Two Delegates to the Populist Convention Leave.

Last night the 11:45 Baltimore & train for the west carried among other passengers, Messrs. George W. Robinson and S. S. Hartman, two representatives of West Virginia to the St. Louis Populist convention, which meets Tuesday. Both are in favor of joining the Chicago movement, and platforms Mr. Robinson says the Teller club, of Wheeling, will abide by the decision of the convention, whatever it may be. Mr. Hartman goes as delegate-at-large and Mr. Robinson as delegate from the First congressional district. They were appointed by the Populist executive committee, no convention having been held in this state. Mr. Robinson said last night that West Virginia would probably have no representatives at the convention of the new silver party, which meets at the same time and place as the Populist gathering.

ABOUT PEOPLE

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad.

Mr. Will Bodley is in the city, having left the Exley-Bodley buckboard party at Albany, N. Y., a few days ago. Colonel Exley and Major and Mrs. Bodley are enjoying their novel outing greatly and do not expect to return to Wheeling until a day or two before the national election, so as to be in time to vote for Mr. McKinley. From Cambridgeboro, Pa., they toured to Chautauqua Lake, New York, and thence across New York state and through the famous Berkshires region in Massachusetts. Their route is along the Atlantic coast to the "eastern shore" in Maryland and Virginia, and thence across the two Virginia to Wheeling. Up in York state the people think Wheeling is "away down south," and could not be induced to believe Colonel Exley when he said West Virginia was just twenty miles south of Connecticut.

Mrs. Wilkes, of Marietta, O., is a guest at the Howell.

Dr. J. L. Thistle, of Washington, Pa., is at the Stamm.

F. W. Floto, of Steubenville, is staying at the Windsor.

The Fort Wayne base ball team is stopping at the Windsor.

Samuel Grier and wife, of Washington, Pa., are guests at the Howell.

Otto Fischer, of New York, well known in traveling circles, is in town.

George Kappel, of Pittsburgh, a music dealer, was at the Stamm House yesterday.

Major Frank Early returned Saturday from a visit to his parents at Indianapolis.

Robert L. McCance, an expert accountant, is stopping at the Stamm House.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hammond, of Pittsburgh, are among the arrivals at the McClure.

Miss May Bowman, of Uniontown, Pa., is the guest of Miss Elizabeth Mendel, on Twelfth street.

Harry Zevely, Laurence Wheat and James Collins spent Sunday at the Moundsville camp grounds.

Andrew J. Noone, formerly of Wheeling, but now of Philadelphia, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bartley, of the South Side.

Mrs. Charles G. Clayland, formerly of Bridgeport, now of Pittsburgh, is visiting friends at her old home in Bridgeport.

T. N. Barnsall, of Bradford, Pa., a wealthy oil producer, and W. S. Morris, of Pittsburgh, an oil man, appear on the McClure books.

Among the West Virginians at the McClure, are: Thomas F. Barrett, Mannington; J. S. Hyer, Sutton; A. C. Orcutt, Charleston; George W. Crawford, Sistersville.

The following names appear on the Stamm register: C. T. Higgins, Huntington; M. E. Moore, Philippi; G. O. Woodcock, New Martinsville; F. G. Wells, Sistersville.

Tom T. Miller has resigned his position on the Register and will leave shortly for Cleveland, where he has accepted a position in House & Herrmann's large store.

The following registered at the Windsor yesterday: A. F. Barrett, Parkersburg; Ed. Beatty, Mannington; A. H. Thorpe, Parkersburg; Mike Sheridan, Mannington; J. K. Dye, Parkersburg; E. A. Freshwater, Pierette.

Mr. Arthur H. Fleming, of Fairmont, "the man of drugs," is in the city on one of his frequent visits. He says the movement to form an organization of the Republican traveling men of the state, at the time of the Parkersburg convention is meeting with favor.

A crowd of distinguished young men from Pittsburgh are down for a few days and stopping at the Howell. The state is made up of the following: August A. Vilsack, A. J. Vilsack, J. A. Friday, J. B. Gloecker, A. A. Friday and John H. Harners. They are accompanied by Will Wright, of Sistersville.

MORE BIG FEATURES.

Prof. Frank E. Miller, a Bowling Prize and the "Pyro" at Mozart Park "Owls" Day.

Next Thursday will mark the greatest event in the history of the O. W. L. Club and it will also no doubt break the record for crowds at Mozart park. If the weather is at all favorable, it is all you hear on the street and everybody appears to be interested in the introduction of the "Pyro walk around," which has made so great a hit in the state since the arrival of the Howell. The club could have secured and will prove a winner. It will be led by the Hon. Philip Losere, of New York, and as he has had experience in them in the east, he will do his part up-to-date.

Not content with one feature, the "Owls" have arranged for a grand athletic exhibition by Professor Frank Miller, who will appear for the first time since his arrival from New York state, where he was an instructor in a Y. M. C. A. and even this is not all; the club will offer a prize to the person making the highest bowling score during the afternoon and evening. The prize selected is a fine oak rocker and will be on exhibition at the park Thursday. There will be no extra admission charged on "Owls" day. Ten cents will include admission and round trip on the Howell. The dancing and amusements will continue from 2 p. m. until midnight and Meister's band and orchestra will furnish the music.

MASTER ARTHUR BONNHEIM.

Son of Dr. Bonnheim, Distinguished Himself at Milwaukee.

Rev. Dr. B. A. Bonnheim, of Wheeling, has returned from Milwaukee, where he attended the meeting of the Central Conference of American Rabbis. He was accompanied by his son Arthur, who, although only seven years old, achieved honor and distinction at the conference. The rabbis were entertained by the two Jewish congregations of Milwaukee, Emanuel and Beth-Jehoshua, one of the features being a boat ride on the lake Thursday night, followed by a banquet. After the toasts, the assemblage was astonished at the ability of young Bonnheim, who closed the banquet by giving the long Hebrew prayer usual on such occasions. Few are the adults who can give this prayer without reference to the book, and the performance of Dr. Bonnheim's son was quite notable. Before their departure for Wheeling, the two Milwaukee congregations presented the young man with a beautiful gold medal, suitably inscribed, as follows: "In memory of the Central Conference of American Rabbis, held in Milwaukee, 1896. Presented to Master Arthur Bonnheim by the Congregations Emanuel and Beth-Jehoshua."

The New Pyrothan Order.

The rituals and secret work along with the paraphernalia for the initiation of the candidates of the D. O. K. K. the new side degree of the Knights of Pythias, have arrived and the officers elected at the meeting held a couple of weeks ago, will meet at the Pythian Castle Wednesday evening to take the obligation and be instructed into the secret work of the order. The elegant costumes worn will arrive some time this week and from now on, the officers will be studying and rehearsing their parts, so that when Dabna Temple is instituted on August 12, everything will work like "greased lightning."
